Jehovah's Witnesses host the Spanish Language Circuit Assembly

LUBBOCK, Texas (November 24, 2010) Jehovah's Witnesses will host the Spanish Language Circuit Assembly November 27-28 at the Lubbock Memorial Civic Center, 1501 Mac Davis Lane, Lubbock, TX. Doors open at 8am, and the program begins at 9:30am each day. The congregations visiting Lubbock will be from Lubbock and Eastern New Mexico, and the circuit is in the Spanish Language. The program is a Bible-based program where individuals and families come together to worship. The program is open to the general public.

“There will be a number of Bible-based discussions, interviews, demonstrations, and baptisms that will help ourselves and our families cope with life in this world such as it is, and still maintain our integrity to our God,” said Brian Waller, Contract Representative and Local Minister of Jehovah's Witnesses.

The Circuit Assembly will bring an approximate attendance of 1,200 people to Lubbock. The Jehovah's Witnesses will host the English Language Circuit Assembly in conjunction to the Spanish Circuit, November 27-28.

For more information, please contact Brian Waller, Contract Representative and Local Minister of Jehovah's Witnesses at 806-722-1703 or briancwall@suddenlink.net.
