Around 1,145 Athletes to Compete in Lubbock at the Premier Baseball Sophomore Championship

(LUBBOCK) – Lubbock Sports will welcome more than 3,300 parents, family members, fans, coaches and athletes for the Premier Baseball Sophomore Championship. The championship kicks off Tuesday, July 25 through Sunday, July 30 at Texas Tech University, Lubbock Christian University and various high school baseball fields in Lubbock.

During the four-day tournament, 52 teams from Arkansas, Missouri, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Nebraska, Colorado and Texas, will compete in the “Hub City.”

“We want our participants to leave Lubbock knowing they played in a great baseball event in a great town,” said Don Patty, tournament director for Premier Baseball. “The out-of-state people can see what Texas is really like.”

Premier Baseball is a youth baseball organization composed of 32 programs throughout the United States and Canada. Premier Baseball was started with the intent to help the players develop their baseball skills during competition between programs.

Lubbock Sports is anticipating around 1,145 athletes, 127 coaches and 2,100 fans. The event is estimated to book around 4,000 room nights and have a $1.2 million economic impact on the local economy.

The Premier Baseball Sophomore Championship is open to the public. Tickets may be purchased at the gate for $7 for adults, $4 for students or $20 for a tournament pass. For additional information about the event, please visit www.premierbaseball.net.
